Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA – SAN JOSE DIVISION

DAYNA BROUSSARD,

Plaintiff,

v.

Equifax, Inc., First Premier Bank, and DOES 1 through 100 inclusive,

Defendants.

CASE NO.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES:

1. Violation of Fair Credit Reporting Act

COMES NOW Plaintiff DAYNA BROUSSARD, an individual, based on information and belief, to allege as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This case arises under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b) and 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b)). Plaintiff seeks redress for the unlawful and deceptive practices committed by the Defendants in connection with their inaccurate, misleading, or incomplete reporting of Plaintiff's debt included in Plaintiff's Chapter 13 bankruptcy.

2. Here, this case involves an account that has not been updated to reflect the account included in Plaintiff's Chapter 13 and instead reports the account as being charged off and in collections with no reference of the bankruptcy filing.
3. The United States Congress has found the banking system is dependent upon fair and accurate credit reporting. Inaccurate credit reports directly impair the efficiency of the banking system, and unfair credit reporting methods undermine the public confidence, which is essential to the continued functioning of the banking system.
4. There exists today in the United States a pervasive and fundamental misunderstanding about the long term impact filing a consumer bankruptcy has on a consumer's credit worthiness. Specifically, many consumers believe that because a bankruptcy can be reported on their credit report for ten years their credit worthiness will be ruined for the same length of time. This is not true.
5. The majority of consumer Debtors who file consumer bankruptcy do so to raise their FICO Score and remedy their poor credit worthiness.
6. It is entirely possible for consumer Debtors to have over a 700 FICO Score within as little as 12 months after filing a consumer bankruptcy (Chapter 7 or Chapter 13).
7. Creditors and lending institutions are aware of the misconception that filing a consumer bankruptcy destroys a consumer's credit worthiness for ten years.
8. In an effort to perpetuate the aforementioned bankruptcy myth, creditors intentionally and routinely ignore credit reporting industry standards for accurately reporting bankruptcies and debts included in those bankruptcies in an effort to keep consumers' credit scores low and their interest rates high.
9. Creditors know that by deviating from recognized credit reporting standards consumers will have difficulty raising their credit scores and improving their credit worthiness.
10. These credit reporting issues are most prevalent in Chapter 13 bankruptcy filings.
11. Consequently, in the United States today it is objectively worse for consumers' credit worthiness to file Chapter 13 and pay back some or all of their debt, as opposed to filing Chapter 7 liquidation where Creditors generally receive nothing.
12. This was not the intent of Congress when enacting the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

13. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations in each and every paragraph above, fully set forth herein.

14. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1337, and 1367, and 15 U.S.C. § 1681

15. This venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b).

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

16. Plaintiff alleges that each and every defendant data furnisher was included in Plaintiff's Chapter 13 bankruptcy filing.

17. Plaintiff alleges that each and every Defendant is familiar with credit reporting industry standards and subscribes thereto.

18. Plaintiff alleges that each and every Defendant understands that deviation from credit reporting industry standards can and often does result in denial of credit, higher interest rates, and prompts those making credit decisions to draw a more negative inference from the reported data than if the Defendant reported in accordance with the recognized industry standard.

19. Plaintiff alleges that all actions alleged herein by Defendants were done knowingly, intentionally, and in reckless disregard for credit reporting industry standards in an attempt to purposefully undermine Plaintiff's ability to reorganize and repair Plaintiff's FICO Score.

20. In the alternative Plaintiff alleges that each and every Defendant's actions was the result of reckless policies and procedures that inevitably led to inaccurate, misleading, or incomplete credit reporting.

FICO, Inc.

21. FICO is a leading analytics software company with its principal headquarters located in San Jose California. FICO has over 130 patents related to their analytics and decision management technology, and regularly uses mathematical algorithms to predict consumer behavior including credit risk.

22. The FICO Score has become the standard measure of consumer credit risk in the United States and is used in ninety percent of lending decisions.

23. A FICO score consists of a three-digit number summarizing a consumer's credit risk or likelihood to repay a loan. FICO periodically updates its scoring models resulting in multiple FICO Score versions.
24. Base FICO Scores range from 300 to 850, while industry-specific FICO Scores range from 250-900. A higher FICO Score demonstrates lower credit risk or less likelihood of default.
25. Different lenders use different versions of FICO Scores when evaluating a consumer's credit worthiness.
26. There are 28 FICO Scores that are commonly used by lenders.
27. A consumer's FICO Score is calculated based solely on information in consumer credit reports maintained at credit reporting agencies (CRAs).
28. The three largest CRAs are Experian Information Solutions, Inc.; Equifax, Inc. and Transunion, LLC.
29. FICO does not control what information is provided on a consumer's credit report. Instead, the scoring models or algorithms are based on the premise that information provided by the CRAs is accurate and complies with credit reporting industry standards.
30. There are five key factors that a FICO Score considers: 1) Payment History 2) Amount of Debt 3) Length of Credit History 4) New Credit and 5) Credit Mix.
31. Each of the five factors is weighted differently by FICO.
32. 35% of a consumer's FICO Score relates to payment history, 30% relates to the amount of debt, 15% relates to the length of credit history, 10% relates to new credit, and the last 10% relates to a consumer's credit mix or the different types of debts reported.
33. Payment history refers to whether a consumer has paid their bills in the past, on time, late or missed payments. The more severe, recent, and frequent the late payment information, the greater the impact on a FICO Score. Public record items such as bankruptcy, foreclosure, judgments, and wage garnishments are also considered part of a consumer's payment history.
34. In factoring the severity of delinquent payments a FICO Score considers how late the payment continues to be, how much is owed, how recently this occurred, and how many delinquent accounts exist.

1 35. Once a delinquent account has been remedied the longer the account stays current the 2 more a consumer's FICO Score should increase.

3 36. FICO Scores are entirely dependent upon information provided by data furnishers
4 (DFs) to CRAs.

5 37. The FICO scoring formula treats both Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 Bankruptcies similarly 6 in terms of their impact on one's FICO Score. Specifically, both Chapters have the 7 same level of severity with respect to their FICO Score and for both, FICO uses the 8 FILING DATE to determine how long ago the bankruptcy took place.

9 Metro 2

10 38. The Consumer Data Industry Association is an international trade association 11 representing the consumer credit, mortgage reporting, employment and tenant screening and collection service industries.

12 39. The credit reporting industry has adopted a standard electronic data reporting format
13 called the Metro 2 format. The Metro 2 format was developed by the CDIA in an effort 14 to universally report debts in a particular manner that is understood to be the most 15 accurate way in which to report a debt. Specifically, Metro 2 format was designed to 16 allow reporting of the most accurate and complete information on consumer's credit 17 history.

18 40. The CDIA's Metro 2 format is the credit reporting industry standard for accurate credit reporting.

19 41. The credit reporting industry at large depends upon Metro 2 and the CDIA's
20 recommendations for reporting debt accurately.

21 42. The CDIA is The expert on accurate credit reporting. In support of this allegation
22 Plaintiff avers the following:

- 23 a. The CDIA offers a FCRA certificate program for all CRAs.
- 24 b. The CDIA offers a FCRA awareness program for all CRAs.
- 25 c. The CDIA offers a FCRA Certificate program for DFs.
- 26 d. The CDIA offers a FCRA awareness program for DFs.
- 27 e. The CDIA offers a Metro 2 Learning system to provide detailed instructions on 28 the use of Metro 2 format to ensure understanding of the reporting guidelines

1 for each field of the Metro 2 Format as well as the relationship between multiple 2 fields.

3 f. The CDIA hosts workshops developed and authorized by Equifax, Experian,
4 Innovis, and Transunion.

5 g. The CDIA developed a credit reporting resource guide for accurately reporting 6 credit.

7 43. The CDIA's Metro 2 is accepted by all CRAs.

8 44. The credit reporting accepted industry standards for reporting metro 2 accurately are 9 found in the CDIA's credit reporting resource guide (CRRG).

10 45. The CRRG outlines the industry standards for most accurately reporting debts using 11 Metro 2.

12 46. The CRRG is not readily available to the public. It can be purchased online for 13 $229.45.

14 47. Even if a buyer is ready willing and able to pay for the CRRG, the CDIA will NOT 15 grant access to the guide unless the buyer represents an organization included in the 16 Metro 2 Access Policy.

17 48. When FICO calculates credit scores the algorithms use Metro 2 information based on 18 industry standards established by the CDIA.

19 49. The algorithms used by FICO in determining a consumer's credit score are premised on 20 the Metro 2 data received comporting with the CDIA's recommendations for accurate
21 credit reporting.

22 50. If the Metro 2 data received by FICO deviates from industry standards an inaccurate or 23 incorrect FICO Score results. If the resulting FICO Score is lower a consumer will be 24 considered a higher credit risk resulting in less favorable lending terms.

25 e-OSCAR

26 51. E-OSCAR is the web based Metro 2 compliant system developed by Experian
27 Information Solutions, Inc.; Equifax, Inc.; TransUnion, LLC and Innovis that enables 28 DFs and CRAs to create and respond to consumer credit disputes.

52. When a consumer sends a dispute letter to a CRA the CRA then sends an automated credit dispute verification (ACDV) via e-Oscar to the DF.

53. The ACDV contains within it Metro 2 codes next to certain data fields associated with a credit file e.g. "Account Type" "07" (07 in Metro 2 refers to a Charge Account).

Bankruptcy Credit Reporting Industry Standards & Consumer Information Indicator

54. When a consumer files bankruptcy certain credit reporting industry standards exist.

55. Certain Metro 2 data is regularly expected and calculated by FICO when determining a consumer's credit worthiness.

56. The Consumer Information Indicator (CII) is a critical field in the Metro 2 Format that indicates a special condition that applies to a specific consumer.

57. Under Metro 2 the CII must be reported only on the consumer to whom the information applies.

58. It is the credit reporting industry standard to report a very specific CII upon the filing of a consumer bankruptcy.

59. In the consumer bankruptcy context CII Metro 2 Code "A" denotes that a petition for Chapter 7 has been filed, is active, but no discharge has been entered.

60. CII Metro 2 Code "D" indicates that a Chapter 13 petition has been filed, is active, but no discharge entered. This is usually translated on a consumer credit report as "Wage Earner Plan" or "WEP" in the "Account Status" portion of a trade line. Such reporting alerts any potential lender that the account is no longer in a collectable status but is being handled by a Chapter 13 trustee.

61. The CII Metro 2 Code "Z" indicates that a bankruptcy petition has been filed but the chapter is undesignated/unknown.

62. The CII Metro 2 Code "E" denotes that a Chapter 7 bankruptcy has been discharged.

63. The CII Metro 2 Code "H" denotes that a Chapter 13 bankruptcy has been discharged.

64. The CII field is a critical field for consumers and directly relates to and impacts a consumer's credit worthiness.

65. The lack of a CII reported makes it appear that a consumer has not addressed outstanding debt obligations through the bankruptcy process.

66. The lack of a CII reported also suggests that creditors are free to collect against a consumer as an individual or that no stay exists to prevent in personam collection activity.

67. Failure to report the correct CII indicator will prompt those making credit decisions to draw a more negative inference regarding a consumer's credit worthiness.

68. Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act a bankruptcy can be reported for ten years.

69. The ten-year rule for reporting runs from the date the bankruptcy was filed.

70. A consumer's FICO Score is directly related to the date on which a petition is filed and acknowledged.

71. The more time that has passed since the filing of the bankruptcy, the less negative impact the bankruptcy will have on a consumer's FICO Score.

72. Failure to reference the bankruptcy filing (CII field) and or the correct petition date shall result in a lower FICO Score resulting in those making credit decisions to draw a more negative inference regarding a consumer's credit worthiness.

Plaintiffs Bankruptcy Filing

73. Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy protection on September 30, 2015 in order to reorganize and repair Plaintiff's credit worthiness and FICO Score.

74. Chapter 13 allows financially overextended individual debtors to make greater voluntary use of repayment plans commensurate with each debtor's abilities, as the most effective means of improving, first, debtor relief, and second creditor recoveries.

75. Whether a debtor uses Chapter 7, Liquidation, or Chapter 13, Adjustments of Debts of an individual, congress intended bankruptcy relief be effective and should provide the Debtor with a fresh start.

76. Plaintiff's plan was confirmed on December 11, 2015.

77. Once confirmed the plan became a final judgment with respect to the party's rights and liabilities.

78. The CDIA recognizes the finality of confirmation orders and the aforementioned credit reporting industry guidelines are specifically setup to harmonize the bankruptcy code and credit reporting guidelines.

79. On November 22, 2016 Plaintiff ordered a credit report from Experian Information Solutions, Inc.; Equifax, Inc. and TransUnion, LLC to ensure proper reporting by Plaintiff's Creditors.

1 80. Plaintiff noticed seven different trade lines on the November 22, 2017 credit report all
2 reporting inaccurate, misleading, or incomplete information that did not follow credit
3 reporting industry standards.

4 81. One problematic tradeline was that of Defendant First Premier Bank, which indicated
5 that Plaintiff's account was charged off and in collections.

6 82. Defendant First Premier also failed to notate that Plaintiff was involved in bankruptcy.

7 83. In response, Plaintiff disputed the inaccurate tradelines via certified mail with Experian
8 Information Solutions, Inc.; Equifax, Inc.; and TransUnion, LLC on February 28, 2017.

9 84. Plaintiff's dispute letter specifically referenced the account at issue.

10 85. Plaintiff's dispute letter also specifically put each Creditor and CRA on notice that 11 Plaintiff had filed for bankruptcy and the accounts were not reporting the bankruptcy 12 accurately.

13 86. Plaintiff also noted that Plaintiff expected the accounts to be reported disputed if the 14 Creditor disagreed with Plaintiff's dispute.

15 87. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each CRA received Plaintiff's dispute letter and 16 in response sent Plaintiff's dispute to each DF via an ACDV through e-OSCAR.

17 88. On April 5, 2017 Plaintiff ordered a second credit report from Experian Information
18 Solutions, Inc.; Equifax, Inc. and TransUnion, LLC to ensure Plaintiff's accounts had 19 been updated.

20 Inaccuracy

21 89. Defendant First Premier was reporting Plaintiff's account, beginning in 5178xxxx, 22 inaccurately continued to report the account as charged off and in collections without 23 referencing the Chapter 13 filing.

24 90. First Premier also listed several post-filing failure to pay notations.

25 91. Plaintiff's account with First Premier appears to still be in a collectable stage which is 26 technically inaccurate and misleading.

27 92. Defendant First Premier is not following industry standards and is not listing the correct 28 Consumer Information Indicator as the Consumer Information Indicator should have been updated to D instead of keeping the status as in collections and/or charged off.

- 1 93. Defendant First Premier has failed to update the Consumer Information Indicator to D, 2 therefore, failing to indicate a petition for Chapter 13 bankruptcy.
- 3 94. Despite Plaintiff including this account in bankruptcy Defendant First Premier continues 4 to report the account as if the account were subject to collections rather than included in 5 Plaintiff's bankruptcy.
- 6 95. Any lender reviewing Plaintiff's credit report will no doubt view this account as subject
7 to potential wage garnishments and or levies. Such reporting is therefore facially
8 inaccurate or that the very least entirely misleading.

9 Damages

- 10 96. Plaintiff pulled the credit report at issue, post dispute process, at a cost of $39.95, 11 specifically for the sole purpose of verifying that the inaccuracies were fixed.
- 12 97. As a result of the incorrect reporting, Plaintiff has suffered economic loss, emotional 13 harm, and excessive stress resulting in doubt as to the effectiveness of the Bankruptcy
14 Code and the power of this Court to preserve and perpetuate a fresh start.
- 15 98. The actions of the Defendants Equifax, Inc. and First Premier as alleged herein are acts 16 in violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b).

17 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of Fair Credit Reporting Act 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b))
19 Against Defendants and Does 1-100)

20 Equifax, Inc. – Failure to Assure Credit Reporting Accuracy.

- 21 99. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein the allegation in each and every paragraph 22 above as though fully set forth herein.
- 23 100. Equifax violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b) by failing to establish and/or to follow reasonable
24 procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy in the preparation of Plaintiff's credit
25 reports and credit files it published and maintained concerning Plaintiff.

26 Willfulness

- 27 101. The violations described herein by Equifax were willful, specifically the Credit Bureaus 28 including defendant Equifax have intentionally and purposefully set up a system where inaccuracies are not only probable but inevitable.

- 1 102. Equifax intentionally sends consumer disputes to employees who do not live within the 2 continental United States.
- 3 103. This is intentionally done to hide and or subvert a consumer's ability to confront 4 individual directly responsible for approving accurate reporting.
- 5 104. These employees for Defendant Equifax receive little to no training concerning how to 6 accurately report consumer debt.
- 7 105. Instead these employees are simply instructed to parrot whatever information a data 8 furnisher provides regardless of whether or not that information is accurate.
- 9 106. Equifax employees are regularly expected to review and approve over 90 disputes per 10 day rendering less than five minutes to review, investigate, and respond to each dispute
11 received. Thus generally no investigation takes place.
- 12 107. Equifax has intentionally setup this system in order to undermine, hide, and otherwise 13 frustrate consumers' ability to properly dispute and correct credit reports.
- 14 108. Consequently, Defendant Equifax is liable for punitive damages in an amount to be 15 determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n. In the alternative, Experian was 16 at least negligent, which entitles Plaintiff to recovery under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.
- 17 109. As a result of Equifax's violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b), Plaintiff suffered actual 18 damages, including but not limited to: loss of credit, damage to reputation,
19 embarrassment, humiliation, and other mental and emotional distress.
- 20 110. The violations by Equifax were willful, rendering Experian individually liable for 21 punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §
22 1681n. In the alternative, Equifax was negligent, which entitles Plaintiff to recovery
23 under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.
- 24 111. Plaintiff is entitled to recover actual damages, statutory damages, costs and attorney's
25 fees from Equifax in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §
26 1681n and § 1681o.

27 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

28 (Violation of Fair Credit Reporting Act 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b))
Against Defendants and Does 1-100)

First Premier Bank –Failure to Reinvestigate.

1 112. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein the allegation in each and every paragraph
2 above as though fully set forth herein.

3 113. 15 USC 1681s-2(b) and 15 USC 1681i-(a)1 prohibits furnishers from providing any 4 information relating to a consumer to any consumer reporting agency if the person knows 5 or has reasonable cause to believe that the information is inaccurate or misleading and 6 requires a furnisher to update and or correct inaccurate information after being notified
7 by a consumer reporting agency of a dispute by a consumer.

8 114. Defendant First Premier Bank violated section 1681s-2(b) by failing to conduct a 9 reasonable investigation and re-reporting misleading and inaccurate account information.

10 115. The CRAs provided notice to the Defendant that Plaintiff was disputing the inaccurate
11 and misleading information but First Premier Bank failed to conduct a reasonable 12 investigation of the information as required by the FCRA.

13 116. Based on Plaintiff's dispute, Defendant First Premier Bank should have known their 14 accounts were included in Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan of reorganization. The most basic 15 investigation would include a simple review of well-established credit reporting industry
16 standards.

17 117. Plaintiff alleges Defendant First Premier did not review well established industry
18 standards for credit reporting.

19 118. If Defendant First Premier had reviewed such standards Defendant would have seen their 20 reporting was not in compliance and consequently inaccurate and or incomplete.

21 119. Such an investigation would be reasonable.

22 120. Plaintiff also alleges that First Premier did not investigate whether Plaintiff filed for 23 bankruptcy, whether their accounts were included, the terms of the plan, or whether or 24 not the terms had been approved.

25 121. The lack of investigation is unreasonable.

26 Willfulness

27 122. Plaintiff further alleges that First Premier has not properly trained those directly 28 investigating disputes on Metro 2 generally or credit reporting industry standards and as such have developed reckless policies and procedures.

123. In addition to lack of training the employees are expected not to investigate disputes but instead simply verify the disputed information is in fact accurate.

Equifax, Inc. – Failure to Reinvestigate Disputed Information.

124. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein the allegation in each and every paragraph above as though fully set forth herein.
125. After Plaintiff disputed the accounts mentioned above, Equifax was required to conduct a reasonable investigation and to delete any information that was not accurate under 15 USC 1681i-(a)1.
126. Equifax failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and failed to correct the misleading and or inaccurate statements on the account within the statutory time frame or at all.
127. Equifax has its own i duty to conduct a reasonable investigation 15 USC 1681i-(a)1.
128. Equifax is not a passive entity bound to report whatever information a DF provides.
129. Plaintiff alleges that Equifax is readily familiar with Metro 2 guidelines and credit reporting industry standards.
130. Equifax sponsors and authorizes workshops hosted by the CDIA that teach the following to DFs:
- a. Do not report delinquencies post petition pre discharge in the payment history section regardless of Chapter 7 or Chapter 13. Instead report the Metro 2 indicator D.
 - b. In Chapter 13 cases do not report past due balances post confirmation.
 - c. In Chapter 13 cases do not report balances that are inconsistent with the terms of the Chapter 13 plan.
 - d. In Chapter 13 cases do not report monthly payments that are inconsistent with the terms of the Chapter 13 plan.
 - e. The above reporting is the correct and accurate way to report debts included in consumer bankruptcy filings.
131. Given the aforementioned, Plaintiff alleges that Equifax can and does suppress inaccurate information from being reported when DFs provide inaccurate information.
132. Equifax can and does instruct DFs on how to properly report certain accounts from time to time upon request from the DF.

- 1 133. Equifax failed to conduct a reasonable investigation because any basic investigation
2 would have uncovered that certain DFs were not following credit reporting industry
3 standards.
- 4 134. Equifax would have known that Plaintiff filed for Chapter 13 based on multiple other 5 accounts reporting as much.
- 6 135. Equifax would have known that Plaintiff's plan had been confirmed based on 7 multiple other accounts reporting as much.
- 8 136. Equifax would have known that failure to report a CII given that a Chapter 13 was 9 filed did not comport with industry standards.
- 10 137. Equifax would have known reporting a past due balance post confirmation does not 11 comport with industry standards.
- 12 138. Equifax therefore did not do the most basic investigation regarding credit reporting
13 industry standards otherwise the aforementioned would have been uncovered.

14 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Violation of Fair Credit Reporting Act 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(4))
16 Against Defendants and Does 1-100)

17 Equifax, Inc. – Failure to Review and Consider All Relevant Information.

- 18 139. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein the allegation in each and every paragraph 19 above as though fully set forth herein.
- 20 140. Equifax violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(4) by failing to review and consider all relevant 21 information submitted by Plaintiff.
- 22 141. As a result of Equifax's violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(4), Plaintiff suffered actual 23 damages, including but not limited to: loss of credit worthiness, damage to reputation,
24 embarrassment, humiliation, and other mental and emotional distress.
- 25 142. The violations by Equifax were willful, rendering Equifax individually liable for punitive 26 damages in an amount to be determines by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n. In 27 the alternative, Equifax was negligent, which entitles Plaintiff to recovery under 15
28 U.S.C. § 1681o.
143. Plaintiff is entitled to recover actual damages, statutory damages, costs and attorney's fees from Equifax in an amount to be determines by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n and § 1681o.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Fair Credit Reporting Act 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(5)(A))
Against Defendants and Does 1-100)

Equifax, Inc. – Failure to Delete Disputed and Inaccurate Information.

144. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein the allegation in each and every paragraph above as though fully set forth herein.

145. Equifax violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(5)(A) by failing to promptly delete the dispute inaccurate items of information from Plaintiff's credit file or modify the item of information upon a lawful reinvestigation.

146. As a result of Equifax's violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a)(5)(A), Plaintiff suffered actual damages, including but not limited to: loss of creditworthiness, damage to reputation, embarrassment, humiliation, and other mental and emotional distress.

147. The violation of Equifax were willful, rendering Experian individually liable for punitive damages in an amount to be determines by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n. In the alternative, Equifax was negligent, which entitles Plaintiff to recovery under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

148. Plaintiff is entitled to recover actual damages, statutory damages, costs and attorney's fees from Equifax in an amount to be determines by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n and § 1681o.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays for judgment as hereinafter set forth.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

1. For preliminary and permanent injunctive relief to stop Defendants from engaging in the conduct described above;
2. Award statutory and actual damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n;
3. Award attorney's fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n & o;
4. For determination by the Court that Creditor's policies and practices are unlawful and in willful violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681n, et seq.; and
5. For determination by the Court that Creditor's policies and practices are

1 unlawful and in negligent violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681o;
